

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

LEGAL INFORMATION PROJECT CHIOS

After a pilot experiment of German refugee law clinics on Chios – one of the five Greek islands, on which the EU-Turkey-Deal and the hotspot concept are implemented – refugee law clinics abroad was constituted. The aim is to establish a permanent legal information project on the island by volunteers and a permanent coordinator on site.

Requirements

- lawyer, law student or asylum procedure advisor
- profound knowledge in the fields of national, european and international asylum law
- experiences in legal counselling / legal information

Framework

- a minimum stay of at least two weeks on Chios (costs for accommodation and further expenses on site will be covered)
- flight costs must be self-financed or covered e.g. by a refugee law clinic or another institution
- preparation: training course in Germany (possibly video call)
- project duration: 08th May, 2017 – 31th April, 2018

Tasks on site

- information concerning the asylum procedure and the content of the hearing
- information concerning the possibilities and the conditions of family reunifications (Dublin-III and national visas)
- forwarding cases to Greek and German lawyers
- cooperation with local actors / international actors on site
- follow-up of the stay through publications to create publicity

We offer

- internship regarding to the conditions of the respective examination regulations (mentoring through a fully qualified lawyer is ensured)

Contact

Interested persons please contact rlcabroad@gmail.com by adding a short CV and/or a description of the relevant experience and the possible period of operation.

Where a takeover of the flight costs is impossible it should be mentioned so that an alternative solution can be found.