

refugee law clinics abroad e.V.

CALL FOR INTERNS

For the period of February to April 2019 we are looking for LEGAL INTERNS, LAWYERS and LEGAL PRACTITIONERS in Athens to participate in a new project on family reunification under the Dublin III Regulation.

Since May 2017, rlc abroad has been working with a small team on the Greek island of Chios, offering legal information to those seeking protection and who are supposed to be deported to Turkey after the EU-Turkey statement took into effect. The focus of our work lies on the preparation for and accompaniment to asylum interviews and support in family reunion procedures under the Dublin III Regulation.

In October, we opened an office in Athens that will focus on family reunification under the Dublin III Regulation. In addition, we are also working on advocacy and research projects.

We work exclusively with long-term interns who will work with us for at least 3 months in Athens and complete a legal clerkship or internship with us.

Requirements

- Lawyer, law student, legal clerk or asylum procedure advisor
- Sound knowledge of national, European and international asylum law
- Alternatively: very good knowledge of Greek
- Experience in legal advice / legal information
- (Working) experience abroad
- Very good knowledge of English
- High resilience and ability to cope with a high workload
- Possibility of self-financing the assignment (e.g. legal clerkship, scholarship via Erasmus+ or DAAD, or own funds)

Framework

- At least 3 months stay in Athens
- Accommodation costs will be covered
- Project-related material costs are covered by the organization
- Reimbursement of additional costs negotiable in case of doubt

Work in Athens

- Independent work on family reunification cases
- Participation in the development of the new project
- Providing with information on the asylum procedure and preparation for the asylum interview
- Participation in legal policy statements and research projects

What we offer

- A highly dynamic, interesting and challenging working environment, both practically and theoretically
- Pleasant cooperation in a small team of highly motivated lawyers
- Completion of compulsory internships or an internship as part of the legal clerkship in accordance with the requirements of the respective examination regulations or of the respective federal state

How to apply

In case you are interested in working with the rlca legal team in Athens, please contact us with a short CV and a letter of motivation to be sent to info@rlca.de.

Please enter "Athens" in the subject line.